Shop Hours Act, No. 75 of 1955

Act 75 of 1955

Commenced on 2 September 1955

[This is the version of this document at 1 December 1998.]

An Act to consolidate the law relating to the closing of shops during certain hours.

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Shop Hours Act, No. 75 of 1955.

2. Definitions

In this Act, unless inconsistent with the context—

"auctioneer" means a person who undertakes or conducts any sale by public auction other than a person who is exempted from taking out an auctioneer's licence under the Trading Licences Act No. 27 of 1939;

"chemist" means a person in possession of a registration certificate entitling him to practise as a chemist under the Pharmacy Act No. 38 of 1929;

"goods" or "merchandise" includes food, drink, meals and refreshments;

"hawker" means a person who travels with a wagon or other vehicle (other than a hand barrow or hand cart propelled by himself) and who carries goods or merchandise for sale;

"normal hours" means the days and hours on and during which a shop is permitted by section 3 to be open;

"holiday" means and includes a public holiday established under the provisions of the Public Holidays Act No. 71 of 1938;

"Minister" means Minister for Enterprise and Employment;

"open" in relation to a shop means open for the admission of a person for the purpose of selling or supplying to him in such shop any goods or merchandise, or for the purpose of taking an order or for the display of samples to a person;

"pedlar" means a person who travels on foot and without a vehicle (other than a hand barrow or hand cart propelled by himself) or with a pack animal or carrier and who carries goods or merchandise for sale;

"shop" means any building or portion thereof, structure, room, market stall, tent, booth, vehicle or any place which is used for the sale therein, thereon or therefrom of goods or merchandise, or for the display of samples and includes a hairdresser's or barber's saloon, but does not include a commercial traveller's sample room, premises used as a factory, or places licensed to sell intoxicating liquors under any law in force;

"urban area" means a town or municipality established under the Urban Government Act No. 8 of 1969.

3. Normal hours during which shops, etc., may be kept open

(1) Except as provided in section 4 no person shall open or keep open any shop, and no person shall in or from any shop sell or supply any goods or merchandise, or take any order, or display any samples, and no auctioneer, hawker or pedlar shall carry on his business—

(a) on any Sunday or holiday;

- (b) earlier than seven o'clock in the morning;
- (c) later than one o'clock in the afternoon on any Saturday, which day shall be deemed to be an early closing day;
- (d) later than five o'clock in the evening on any Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday:

Provided that paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of this sub-section shall not apply to any shop outside any urban area.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Minister for Commerce, Industry and Mines may by notice in the Gazette fix in any area a weekly early closing day on a day other than Saturday, in which case the provisions of this Act applying to Saturday shall be read as applying to such other appointed day.
