Provided that the Council may exclude from the proceedings persons other than the parties thereto and their legal representatives to such extent as it may by law be empowered—

(a) to do and may consider necessary or expedient in the circumstances where publicity would prejudice the interest of justice or in interlocutory proceedings or in the interests of morality, the welfare of persons under the age of 18 years or the protection of the private lives of persons concerned in the proceedings; or

(b) required to do in the interest of defence, public safety or public order.

(b) saving any lawful objection, refuses to be sworn or to take an oath or to make an affirmation or declaration or to answer fully and satisfactorily, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a question lawfully put to him; shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of fifty emalangeni.

(7) Any person who having taken an oath or made an affirmation and declaration, gives false evidence at an inquiry knowing the evidence to be false, or not believing it to be true, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to the same penalty as is prescribed at common law for perjury.

The conviction by a court of a registered or enrolled person (whether such conviction was before or after his registration or enrolment) of an offence the commission of which, in the opinion of the Council, constitutes improper or disgraceful conduct shall for the purpose of an inquiry unless the contrary is proved be proof of improper or disgraceful conduct by that person.

21. Punishments

Where, at an inquiry, the Council finds the allegation has been proved, it may impose on the person—
(a) a caution or reprimand or both; or
(b) suspension, for a specified period, from practising in Swaziland in a capacity in which he is registered or enrolled; or
(c) cancellation of his registration or enrolment and the removal of his name from the Register or Roll.

22. Appeal to the High Court

(1) Within thirty days after the date of the finding of the Council under section 21, a person aggrieved by the finding of or a punishment imposed by the Council may appeal to the High Court.

(2) The High Court may uphold the finding, or set it aside, or direct the Council to take whatever other action the court considers appropriate and shall make such order as to costs as it deems appropriate.

(3) The Chief Justice may make rules as to the procedure and practice in relation to an appeal under this section, including the fees to be paid, and the giving of security for costs.

23. Council's power after award of punishment
