"Authority" means the Swaziland Television Authority established under section 3;

"Broadcasting Service" means a telecommunication service of transmissions consisting of sounds, images and signals which take place by means of radio and is intended for reception by the general public;

"the Board" means the Board of Directors established under section 5 of this Act;

"the Board of Control" means the Swaziland Television Authority Board of Control established under section 9;

"Chairman" means the Chairman of the Board and includes the Deputy Chairman and Acting Chairman.

"the Government" means the Government of the Kingdom of Swaziland;

"Minister" means the Minister responsible for television broadcasting;

"Television Service" means the national television broadcasting service in Swaziland formerly operated by S.T.B.C.;

"Management Agreement" means an Agreement of management in terms of this Act entered into between the Government of the Authority and any other person.

3. Establishment of the Authority

There is hereby established the Swaziland Television Authority which shall be a body corporate, having perpetual succession, capable of suing and of being sued in its corporate name, capable of purchasing, acquiring and alienating any movable or immovable property or of performing all such acts as a body corporate may lawfully perform.

4. Objects and powers of the Authority

(1) The objects and powers of the Authority shall be to—

   (a) establish, erect and operate television broadcasting stations in Swaziland and maintain all facilities in connection therewith in accordance with this Act;
(b) impose and implement controls in regard to—

   (i) television and rentals, selling and dealing in television receivers and associated equipment.

   (ii) the technical quality of the transmissions;

   (iii) the duration of broadcasting time used or certificate for advertising or commercials;

(c) issue and withdraw licences referred to in this Act;

(d) with the permission of the Minister borrow or lend money to, either with or without security and with or without interest, such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Authority may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build or improve any property in which the Authority is interested;

(e) acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company (including the Government) carrying on any business which the Authority is authorised to carry on;

(f) acquire the shares, assets and liabilities from the Government and carry on the functions of the Authority in terms of the Agreement;

(g) enter into contractual agreements with any person for the better management of its affairs and carrying out of its aims and objects in terms of this Act;

(h) with the permission of the Minister raise, borrow, or secure the payment of money, or the performance of any obligation, in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient and in particular by the grant and passing of mortgage and other bonds charged upon all or any of the Authority’s assets, movable and immovable, present and future;

(i) open and operate bank accounts and savings accounts and draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading and other negotiable instruments, and guarantee the payment of any money;

(j) establish and support, or to aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, clubs, hospitals, trust funds or conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Authority, or the dependants or connections of such persons, and grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any public, general or useful object;

(k) assume the rights and obligations of any person or corporation under any contract entered into in contemplation of the establishment of this Authority and purporting or intended to be for the benefit of this Authority and to indemnify such person or corporation against any claim arising out of such contract and to accept profits and liabilities from any such contract already completed in terms of the Agreement or any other future undertaking;

(l) do and perform all other such things and functions as are incidental or conducive to the attainment and realisation of the above aims and objects in terms of this Act as would be within its powers as hereunder provided.

(2) The aims and objects of the Authority and all that the Authority is empowered to do in terms of this Act shall be undertaken and carried out for and on behalf of the Authority by the Board of Directors.

5. Composition of the Board of Directors

(1) There shall be a Board of Directors of the Authority which shall consist of—

   (a) a Chairman who shall be appointed by the Minister;
