An Act to provide for the establishment of the National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS (NERCHA) and the multi sectoral response to the HIV/AIDS pandemic and other matters related thereto.

Part I – Preliminary

1. Short title and commencement

This Act may be cited as The National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS Act, 2003, and shall come into force on the date of publication.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Council" means the National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS established in terms of section 3 of this Act;

"Councillors" means the members of Council appointed under section 3 of this Act;

"Directorate" means the Staff of National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS appointed in terms of section 9 of this Act;

"Director" means the Director of the National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS appointed in terms of section 11 of this Act;

"Fund" means the HIV/AIDS Emergency Fund established under Legal Notice No. 24 of 2002;

"NERCHA" shall have the same meaning as Council;

"Minister" shall mean the Prime Minister; and

"Secretary" means the Director.

Part II – Establishment and composition

3. Establishment of Council

(1) There is hereby established a Council to be known as the National Emergency Response Council on HIV/AIDS.

(2) The Council shall be a body corporate.

4. Composition of Council

(1) The Council shall be composed of not more than 30 members appointed by the Minister in consultation with Cabinet and drawn from non-governmental organisations, stakeholders and such other persons having special knowledge or interest in matters related to HIV/AIDS.
(2) The Minister shall by notice from time to time publish the names of Councillors in the Government Gazette.

(3) Membership to the Council shall be for a period not exceeding three years and subject to the provisions of the Act and such other terms and conditions as may be stipulated by the Minister at the time of the appointment.

(4) A Councillor shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(5) A Councillor who will not be able to attend the business of Council for a period exceeding three months shall notify the Secretary and the Minister may appoint an alternate Councillor.

(6) If a Councillor has or acquires a pecuniary interest, either personally or through any company or partnership, or through any person who is related to the Councillor within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity, in any contract for the supply of materials to, or the execution of any work for, Council, or any other contract in which the Council is interested, or if the Council is considering an application for any such contract in which the member would have any such interest, the member shall forthwith make full disclosure of that interest to Council and shall not take part in Council’s consideration or discussion of any question relating to such contract or application or vote thereon without the prior consent of the Chairperson.

(7) A Councillor shall be disqualified from the Council or not be eligible for appointment if the Councillor—
   (a) is convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment for more than six (6) months;
   (b) is incapacitated by prolonged physical or mental illness;
   (c) has been absent from two consecutive meetings of Council, otherwise than by reason of illness or some other cause approved by Council;
   (d) has any undeclared financial interest, direct or indirect, in any of the activities of Council that will accrue to the Councillor;
   (e) becomes an employee of Council, other than the Secretary;
   (f) has within the last five years, before the appointment, been convicted of any offence and sentenced to imprisonment;
   (g) is an unrehabilitated insolvent.

(8) The Minister may terminate the appointment of any member in the event—
   (a) the Councillor has become disqualified on any of the grounds set out in subsection 7;
   (b) for misconduct, inefficiency or negligence in carrying out of, or failure to carry out any of the duties and functions of Council.

(9) A member of Council may resign from office at any time by giving to the Minister, one month’s notice in writing.

5. Appointments to fill casual vacancies

Where for any reason whatsoever, there is a vacancy in Council before the expiry of the term of office of a Councillor, and the unexpired portion of the term of office is six months or more, the vacancy may be filled by the appointment of a new Councillor who shall hold office for so long as the former Councillor would have held office.
Part III – Meetings of Council

6. Meetings of Council
   (1) The Minister shall appoint the Chairperson in consultation with Cabinet. The Vice-Chairperson shall be appointed by the Councillors.
   (2) The Chairperson, and in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson, shall preside over meetings of Council.
   (3) In the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson from any meeting of Council, the Councillors present shall elect one of their number to preside over that meeting, and the Councillor so elected shall in respect of that meeting have the power and perform the duties of the Chairperson.
   (4) The Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson presiding over a meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote.
   (5) Subject to the provisions of this section, Council shall regulate its own procedure and determine the time and venue for its meetings.
   (6) The quorum of any meeting of Council shall be fifty percent plus one, including the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, and decisions of Council shall be by majority.
   (7) Council shall hold quarterly meetings or such meetings as are considered necessary by the Chairperson in consultation with the Director.

Part IV – Powers and functions of Council

7. Powers of Council
   Council shall have the power to do anything which is calculated to enable it to exercise and perform its functions, or which are incidental or conducive thereto, including in particular but not derogating from the generality of this provision, powers which shall include the power to—
