Application.

3. (1) This Order shall apply to all persons other than articulated apprentices employed in any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which carries on one or more of the following activities for gain —

- (a) Mining and quarrying operations;
- (b) Winning of sand and gravel from any source; or
- (c) Ancillary work connected with the running of a mineral extraction operation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) this Order shall not apply to an employee who is in receipt of a basic remuneration aggregating E500.00 or more per month and who has authority to—

- (a) give orders to employees under his control;
- (b) recommend transfer, suspend, discipline, discharge or promote workers under his control; and
- (c) Adjudge and make recommendations in connection with grievances of employees under his control.

Hours of work.

4. (1) The basic working week shall be a maximum of six days.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) where shifts are maintained, the basic working week shall —

- (a) consist of six twelve-hour shifts in the case of a security guard; and
- (b) six eight-hour shifts in all other cases.

Except that —

- (i) with the consent of his employer, an employee may, extend his daily hours of work by up to one hour in order to reduce the hours of work of his last shift for his own convenience without the entitlement to overtime payment.
- (ii) Subject to section 10(2) where an employer requires an employee to work in excess of the hours specified in this section, an employee shall be paid for overtime in accordance with the provisions of section 9.

Work stoppage.

5. (1) In the event of a temporary stoppage of any employer's operations whether partial or complete, occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the employer or of the employee, but excluding stoppage occasioned by a strike, lockout, sit-in or other form of labour action or dispute, whether concerted or individual, an employee who is present, available, capable and willing to work for the normal period during normal working hours at times appointed by the employer, shall be paid at the full rate applicable to the job —

- (a) in the case of watchman or security guard, for a minimum of 72 hours in any week; and
- (b) in the case of all other employees for a minimum of 48 hours in any week.

Provided that —

- (i) an employee shall perform any task appointed by the employer;
- (ii) such task shall not expose or subject an employee to peculiar risks or substantially more arduous conditions than those pertaining to his original or normal form of employment; and
- (iii) the provisions of such alternative work shall not prejudice the employer's right to terminate the employee's contract of service in terms of his normal conditions of employment and in accordance with the law.

(2) Where the employer cannot appoint a productive task and the employee is present, available, capable and willing to work, the employer shall pay the employee full daily wages for two days immediately succeeding the day upon which work was stopped and thereafter pay the employee half his daily rate until work is resumed or his employment is lawfully terminated.

Static and worsening conditions.

6. (1) The rate of pay and other conditions of employment set forth in this Order are the least or minimum permitted by the Government of Swaziland and shall not be represented as otherwise and no part of this Order shall be construed as justifying non advancement or denying advancement to, or freezing the wages of an employee.

(2) No employer affected by this Order shall reduce his rates of remuneration or other conditions of service from those which were applicable to his employee at the effective date of this Order, except where the nature of work has been changed.

Categories of work.

7. Employees affected by this Order shall be graded into categories A1, A2, B1, B2, B3 and C1 as set out in the Schedule hereto.

Basic minimum wage.

8. (1) The basic minimum wage for the various categories set forth in section 7 shall be in respect of a shift of eight hours except in the case of watchmen, where the shift shall be twelve hours and shall be as set out in the table hereunder.

(2) The basic minimum wage per shift for the categories of employee graded in accordance with section 7 and the Schedule hereto shall be as follows—

A1	A2	B1	B2	B3	C1
5.99	6.95	7.85	8.97	10.51	12.33

Overtime.

9. Overtime shall be paid to daily rated workers at the following rates —

- (a) for time in excess of 15 minutes after the specified hours per shift as specified in section 4, at one and one half times the basic rate reduced to an hourly rate, except as provided in paragraph (b);

- (b) for time worked on Sundays, where Sunday is not a working day, or on an employee's rest day where Sunday is a normal working day, or on a holiday specified in section 10, at double the basic wage reduced to an hourly rate.

Public holidays.

10. (1) Subject to section 9(b) the following public holidays shall be regarded as holidays with full pay:

Provided that payment shall not be made to an employee who absents himself from his normal place of work without authority on the days preceding and succeeding the specified holiday:

Christmas Day
Boxing Day
Good Friday
Easter Monday
King's Birthday
Umhlanga (Reed Dance)
Somhlolo National Day
Incwala Day

(2) If so required by his employer, an employee shall work extra shifts at basic rates upon three days to be appointed by the employer for the purpose of maintaining production which the employer may find to have been lost by reason of any three of the holidays set out in subsection (1).

Annual leave.

11. On completion of each period of twelve months' continuous service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to annual leave of not less than fifteen working days excluding the public holidays and the employee's rest days with full pay.

Sick leave.

12. An employee who after three months continuous service with his employer becomes ill through no fault of his own and become incapable of performing his duties, shall have one or other of the following sick benefits in respect of each period of twelve months' continuous service on production of a certificate issued by a medical practitioner registered under the Medical and Dental Practitioners Act, 1970 —

- (a) fourteen days leave with full pay and thereafter fourteen days with half pay;
- (b) thirty days leave of which the first three days in any period of sickness shall be without pay and the remainder with pay; or
- (c) thirty days of free hospitalization and medical treatment with free food whilst in hospital and a daily sum of money equivalent to the cash value of any employee's rations as may be approved by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Maternity leave.

13. Pregnancy shall entitle an employee to —

- (a) a total of thirty days leave, on full pay in each period of twelve months' continuous service with the same employer in respect of prenatal, confinement and post-natal care; or
- (b) alternatively, at the option of the employer and in lieu of payment referred to in paragraph (a) —
 - (i) free pre-natal medical care;
 - (ii) confinement in hospital with free food, free medical treatment including all medicines prescribed by the medical practitioner in charge of her; and
 - (iii) three weeks unpaid leave following delivery.

Redundancy.

14. (1) In the case of redundancy by reason of closure, cessation or curtailment of an employer's operation each affected employee shall receive —

- (a) one month's notice of termination of service or one month's pay in lieu of such notice;
- (b) (i) one month's wage at his latest basic minimum rate where he has been in the employer's continuous service up to 6 months;
- (ii) two months' wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for more than 6 months but less than 12 months; or
- (iii) three months' wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for 12 months or more.

(2) The benefits provided in this section shall be a minimum but shall be deemed to be included in any terminal benefits provided by any written law.

Pay advances.

15. On a day to be appointed by his employer, which day shall be approximately half way through the pay month, an employee whose basic wage exceeds E100.00 per month shall be entitled to draw an advance of his wages to an amount of E20.00.

Provided that —

- (a) there are funds standing to the credit of the employee to meet the amount of the required advance; and
- (b) his acceptance of the advance shall be deemed to be an authorisation to the employer to deduct the full amount advanced to him at the end of the pay month from his monthly salary.

Revocation of Legal Notice No. 76 of 1984.

16. The Regulation of Wages (Mining and Quarrying Industry) Order, 1984 is hereby revoked.
