THE WAGES ACT, 1964

(Act No. 16 of 1964)

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO SUBMIT WAGES REGULATION PROPOSALS

(Under Section 11)

In accordance with the Wages Act, 1964 the Manufacturing and Processing Industry Wages Council, having made its investigations as it thought fit, hereby publishes its intention to submit proposals to the Minister of Labour and Public Service as to the minimum wages and other conditions of employment which should be applied to certain employees in relation to whom the council operates.

Copies of the proposals may be obtained from the Department of Labour Headquarters, Mbabane during normal working hours.

Written representations with regard the proposals must be sent to the Assistant Secretary, Manufacturing and Processing Industry Wages Council, P.O. Box 198, Mbabane, within thirty (30) days of publication of this notice.

Assistant Secretary Manufacturing and Processing Industry Wages Council

OBITUARY

The Ministry of Labour and Public Service deeply regrets to announce the death of Mr. Absalom Maphalala, who passed away on the 18th August, 1986.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that I, Richard Mlumbi Dlamini a follower of Chief Mhubhe Dlamini of Ngculwini Area in Manzini Region intend to apply to the Honourable Minister of Justice of the Kingdom of Swaziland for authorisation to assume the surname Hulett after the fourth publication of this Notice in each of four consecutive weeks in the Times of Swaziland and Observer Newspapers, being two newspapers circulating in the region where I reside and designated for this purpose by the Regional Secretary for the Manzini Region and in the Government Gazette.

The reason I want to assume the surname Hulett is because my Father's Surname is Hulett the Dlamini Surname I was given by my Mother.

Any person or persons likely to object to my assuming the surname Hulett should lodge their objections in writing with me at the address given below and with the Regional Secretary for Manzini Region.

Basic Minimum Wage.

4. The employees specified in the First Schedule shall be paid a basic minimum wage not less favourable than that specified therein, which shall not be reduced by any amount for housing or accommodation.

Rations.

5. (1) At his own expense, an employer shall supply weekly rations to each employee in accordance with the scale specified in the Third Schedule.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-section (1) an employer may, with the consent of the employee and after notifying the Labour Commissioner, pay the employee in lieu of rations, such allowances as may be approved by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Hours of work.

6. The normal working week shall consist of forty-eight hours (which shall exclude six hours duty free for meal breaks) spread over a period of six days.

Overtime.

7. (1) Overtime for all employees, other than those employed on a casual basis, shall be paid for time worked in excess of forty-eight hours in any week, at one and half times the normal hourly rate.

(2) The normal hourly rate shall be not less than one two hundred and thirty fourth 1/(234) of the employee's basic minimum wage.

Annual leave.

8. (1) After twelve months continuous service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to twelve working days paid leave which period shall exclude any public holidays specified in the Fourth Schedule which occur during that leave:

Provided that:-

- (a) after two years of continuous service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to eighteen working days annual leave with full pay; and
- (b) after three years of continuous service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to twenty-one working days annual leave with full pay.

(2) An employee who goes on annual leave, in addition to the payment for that leave shall be paid an amount in cash equivalent in value to the rations he would have received during the period of his annual leave had he remained on the employer's premises.

Sick leave.

9. (1) After three months' continuous service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days with full pay, and thereafter to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days with half pay, in each period of twelve months' of continuous service, subject to the employee producing a certificate of incapacity covering the period claimed as sick leave, signed by a medical practitioner registered under the medical and Dental Practitioners Act, 1970: Provided that an employer may, accept such other evidence as he deems appropriate.

(2) An employee may, on production of evidence that she is about to give birth to a child, take the sick leave provided for in this section as part of her maternity leave.

Public holidays.

10. (1) The public holidays specified in the Fourth Schedule shall be holidays with full pay.

(2) Where an employee is required to work on a day which is a paid public holiday, he shall be given seven days' notice of such requirement, thereafter by a mutual agreement, he shall either be given a working day off with full pay within thirty days of such public holiday or be paid in respect of the hours worked on that public holiday at one and half times his basic wage.

(3) In the absence of the mutual agreement referred to in sub-paragraph (2), the employer shall in his discretion decide whether the employee shall receive payment for the public holiday or whether he should be given a day off work in lieu thereof.

(4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, no employee shall be compelled to take more than half the paid public holidays in any calendar year in the form of days off work in lieu of such public holidays.

11. (1) An employee shall be entitled to either one rest day with full pay in every period of seven days, provided that with the agreement of his employer, he may accumulate two such rest days in any period of days.

(2) Where an employee works on a rest day in order to accumulate two rest days as provided in sub-section (1), he shall not be entitled to overtime payment for that day except for such time worked thereon as exceeds nine working hours.

Casual work.

12. A person employed on a casual basis shall be paid for each hour worked not less than one two hundredth of the basic minimum wage as specified in the First Schedule.

Travel arrangements.

13. Where an employer does not provide accommodation for an employee and such employee is required to start work on or before 7.00 a.m. or to remain on duty after 5.30 p.m. the employer shall either:-

- (a) provide free transport between the place of work and such other place not exceeding sixteen kilometres and accessible by road, as may be agreed by the employer and employee concerned; or
- (b) pay to the employee in addition to wages, an amount equal to the cost of public transport between the place of work and such other place as may be agreed by the employer and employee.
