THE CURRENCY (COMMEMORATIVE COINAGE) ORDER, 1998

(King's Order-in-Council No. 1 of 1998)

I ASSENT

MSWATI III
KING OF SWAZILAND
23rd September 1998

AN ORDER-IN-COUNCIL entitled

A King's Order-in-Council to provide for the striking and issuing of gold, silver, copper, bronze and nickel or any metal or mixed metal coins to commemorate certain significant national events.

ENACTED by the King in collaboration with the Council.

Clause.

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. Commemorative coinage.
4. Remedy or tolerance.
5. Minister's powers.
6. Legal tender.

Short title.

1. This Order-in-Council may be cited as the Currency (Commemorative Coinage) Order, 1998 and shall come into force on the date of publication in the Gazette or such date as the Minister may, by notice published in the Gazette, appoint.

Interpretation.

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires -

"Governor" means the Governor of the Central Bank of Swaziland ;

"Minister" means the Minister responsible for Finance ; and

"Order" or "this Order" means the Currency (Commemorative Coinage) Order, 1998.

Commemorative coinage.

3. (1) The Minister, alone or in collaboration with the Governor, may cause gold, silver, copper, bronze, nickel, or any metal or mixed metal coins to be struck and issued to commemorate the occasion of -

- (a) the attainment or anniversary by Swaziland of independence ; or
- (b) such certain significant national event as may from time to time be proclaimed by the King and which proclamation shall be published as a notice by the Minister in the Gazette.

(2) The Minister in collaboration with the Governor shall, before causing such gold, silver, copper, bronze, nickel, or any metal or mixed metal to be struck, prepare a Schedule setting out -

- (a) the denominations;
- (b) the dimensions;
- (c) the values;
- (d) the weight (standard weight and the least current weight) ;
- (e) the standard fineness; and
- (f) other details, as may be necessary,

of the coins and the Schedule shall be published by the Minister by notice in the Gazette before the coins are issued by the Governor.

Remedy or tolerance.

4. In striking the gold, silver, copper, bronze or nickel or any metal or mixed metal coins such remedy or tolerance from the standard weight and standard fineness as shall be specified in the Schedule shall be allowed provided the amounts do not exceed the amounts as set out in the Schedule as maximum amounts.

Minister's powers.

5. (1) The Minister in consultation with the Governor may, by notice published in the Gazette, make regulations, including the amending of the Schedules, for the purposes of this Order.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Minister as aforesaid in this section may, by regulations or notice published in the Gazette determine the design and the dimensions of a coin to be struck and issued under this Order.

(3) Further the Minister as aforesaid may by notice published in the Gazette notify the public of the issuance of any commemorative coins or any other thing done or to be done under this Order.

Legal tender.

THE ROYAL EMOLUMENTS AND CIVIL LIST (AMENDMENT) ORDER, 1998

(Order No. 2 of 1998)

I ASSENT
MSWATI III
KING OF SWAZILAND
23rd September 1998

AN ORDER-IN-COUNCIL entitled

An Order to amend the Royal Emoluments and Civil List Act, 1992.

ENACTED by the King in collaboration with the Council.

Short title.

1. This Order may be cited as the Royal Emoluments and Civil List (Amendment) Order, 1998, and shall be read as one with the Royal Emoluments and Civil List Act, 1992 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Amendment of section 3.

2. Section 3 of the principal Act is amended as follows -

(a) in subsection (1) by replacing it with a new subsection as follows -

“(1) For each period of ten years with effect from the commencement of the Order there shall be paid in advance for the Royal Emoluments and Civil List set out in Parts I and II of the Schedule of the principal Act a yearly sum of fifteen Million Emalangeni (E15, 000.000).”

(b) by adding a new subsection (10) as follows -

“(10) (a) Where there is an adjustment in the remuneration of civil servants such adjustment shall also be effected in the salaries of the personnel in the King's office and the yearly sum provided for under section 2 of the Act shall be adjusted accordingly.

(b) The Minister shall by notice in the Gazette, notify of such change.”

(c) by adding a new subsection (11) as follows -

“(11) The Minister may apply for supplementary funds, at any time before the expiry of the ten year period, where there is a shortfall in the sum allocated under section 3 of the Act.”

Amendment of section 6.

3. Section 6 (1) of the principal Act is amended by replacing the word ‘five’ with the word ‘ten’.

(2) An employee required to travel on duty, other than in the circumstances set out in sub-regulation (1), shall be provided either with free transport or be paid by his employer the cost of travel by public transport.

(3) An employee who is absent on duty away from his normal place of employment for a longer period than twelve hours, and who returns to his normal place of residence without staying overnight shall be paid a subsistence allowance of E2.00 for each period of twelve hours or part thereof of such absence.

(4) An employee who is absent on duty overnight away from his normal place of employment, shall, in respect of each night's absence, be provided by his employer with ;

(a) free food and accommodation or a nightly allowance of E12.50 in lieu thereof ;

(b) free accommodation and an allowance of E7.50 in lieu of food ; or

(c) free food and an allowance of E7.50 in lieu of accommodation ;

(5) An entitlement to free food, accommodation or allowances under sub-regulation shall not cease until the employee is back to his normal place of employment.

(6) An employee entitled to subsistence allowance under sub-regulation (4), shall not be entitled to subsistence allowance under sub-regulation (3) in respect of the same period of absence.

(7) Where an employee is permanently transferred by his employer to a new place of employment, he shall be paid in addition to any other entitlement due to him under this regulation, a transfer allowance of E25.00.

(8) An employee, who is provided by his employer with accommodation at his place of permanent employment in which his family is residing with the consent of the employer, shall if so required by his employer to transfer to another place of employment other than for the purpose of seasonal employment, be moved at the expense of that employer.

Lay-off.

13. (1) Where an employer is unable to provide work for any employee due to:

(a) unavailability of working materials ; or

(b) temporary cessation of work ;

the employer may, subject to that employer giving the employee not less than twenty four hours notice, lay-off the employee without pay for a maximum period of thirty working days in the circumstances mentioned in sub-regulations (a) and (b).

(2) At the expiry of thirty working days the employer shall either provide work for the employee, or terminate his employment under the provisions of the Employment Act.

(3) An employee who is engaged for the duration of a specific project or in connection with a specific project shall, upon commencement of work be notified of the date upon which it estimated the project shall terminate and the notification of such date of termination, shall constitute an adequate notice by the employer to the employee of the date of notice of termination of such contract of service.

Lay-off due to weather.

14. (1) An employee who reports for work at his place of employment at the normal time but who is unable to start work due to inclement weather the employer shall be entitled to a minimum of one and one half hours pay for that day.

(2) An employee who on any day commences work and who, in the opinion of his employer is unable to continue work due to inclement weather, shall be paid for the hours he has worked plus an additional one-and half hours wages.

(3) The employer shall determine whether to start or stop work within the one-and half hours.

Clothing, equipment and protective clothing.

15. (1) If it is necessary to protect an employee from physical or chemical injury which may arise from the work he is required to do, the employer shall supply that employee with adequate protective clothing and such employee shall use the protective clothing as instructed.

(2) The employer of a watchman or security guard shall provide him, without free of charge, with boots or shoes, a police whistle, a club and a torch, and where the watchman or security guard is required to work in inclement weather, the employer shall, in addition, provide him with a hat, overcoat or rain coat.

(3) An employee other than a watchman or security guard, who is required to work in direct contact with mass concrete or similar matter which is likely to cause injury to his feet, shall be provided by his employer, without charge, with a pair of gumboots.

(4) An employee other than a watchman who is required to work outdoors in inclement weather shall be provided by his employer, free of charge with a waterproof coat and cap or similar garment.

(5) The clothing and equipment supplied to an employee under this regulation shall be of reasonable quality and shall remain the property of the employer.

(6) Where protective clothing, supplied to an employee under this regulation, is damaged or lost through the negligence of the employee, the employer may deduct the cost thereof, after due consideration of wear and tear, from wages due to the employee.

(7) Each employee who works on a section of a project which is a double storey or more shall be issued with a hard-hat when the work proceeds into the section of the double storey.

THIRD SCHEDULE

APPLICATION OF PART V OF THE EMPLOYMENT ACT, 1980.

(Note: Section 31 to 44 of the Act are the corresponding section 1 to 14 of this Order)

Application.

1. This Part of the Act shall apply to every contract of employment made in Swaziland and to be performed wholly within Swaziland.

Probationary period.

1. (1) During period of probationary employment as stipulated either in the form to be given to an employee under section 22 of the Employment Act, 1980 or in a collective agreement governing his terms and conditions of employment, either party may terminate the contract of employment between them without notice.

(2) No probationary period shall, except in the case of employee engaged on supervisory technical or confidential work, extend beyond three months.

(3) In case of employees engaged on supervisory, technical or confidential work, the probationary period shall be fixed in writing, between the employer and employee at the time of engagement.

Periods of notice by employer and employee.

3. (1) Subject to regulation 9, the minimum notice of termination of employment an employer may give an employee who has completed his probationary period of employment, and who has been continuously employed by that employer for more than one month shall be:-

- (a) if the period of continuous employment is three months or less, one week ;
- (b) if the period of continuous employment is more than three months but less than twelve months, two weeks, or two days for each completed month of continuous employment up to and including the twelfth month, whichever is greater ;
- (c) if the period of continuous employment is more than twelve months, one month and an additional four days for each completed year of continuous employment after first year of such employment. (Amendment Act 4/1995).

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, 3, where an employee has completed his probationary period of employment and is employed on a contract of employment which provides for an employee wages at monthly or fortnightly intervals, the minimum period of notice of termination of employment to be given to that employee shall not be less than one month or a fortnight as the case may be.

(3) The minimum period of notice to be given by an employee who has been continuously employed by the same employer for a period of three months or more shall be two week, or such longer period as may be specified in the form at the Second Schedule to be given to the employee under section 22 of the Employment Act, 1980 or in a collective agreement covering the terms and conditions of employment of the employee.

(4) The period of notice to be given under sub-regulation (2) or (3) shall begin on the working day following that on which it is served by either party.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prevent either party terminating a contract of employment by paying to the other party, in lieu of notice, an amount equal to the basic wages which would have been earned by the employee during the period of notice.

(6) During the period of notice served by an employer on an employee under this scaffolding erector, the employee shall be entitled, without reduction in wages, to be absent from work for the purpose of seeking other employment for twelve hours each week, the timing of which shall be agreed between the employer and employee and which, in pursuance of such agreement, may be taken in one or more complete days during the period of notice.

(7) Nothing in this scaffolding section shall prejudice the right of the employer to dismiss an employee summarily for a just cause and any employee who is dismissed for a just cause shall be paid the wages due to him up to and including the date of such dismissal.

(8) An employee shall not be dismissed without notice unless the reasons for the dismissal are such as to warrant the immediate cessation of the employer and employee relationship and where the employer cannot be expected to take any other course.

Severance Allowance.

4. (1) Subject to sub sections (2) and (3) if the services of an employee are terminated by the employer other than under the provisions of section 36 of the Employment Act, 1980, or regulation 13 the employee shall be paid, as part of the benefits accruing under his contract of service, a severance allowance amounting to ten working days' wages for each completed year in excess of the one year that he has been continuously employed by that employer.

(2) In calculating the amount of the severance allowance to which the employee is entitled under subsection (1) any employment by an employee with the employer concerned prior to the 1st January 1968 shall be discharged.

(3) If an employer operates or participates in, and makes any contribution to any gratuity pension or provident fund (other than the Swaziland National Provident Fund established by the Swaziland National Provident Fund Order, 1974) which is operated for the benefit of his employees, the employer on termination of employment of an employee, shall be entitled to repayment from the gratuity, pension or provident fund equal to the employer's total contribution to that gratuity, pension or provident fund in respect of the employee to whom a severance allowance is to be paid under this section.

(4) The amount of the repayment under subsection (3) shall not exceed the total amount of the severance allowance paid by the employer under section subsection (1).

(5) For the purpose of this section, the term "wage" shall mean the wages payable to the employee at the time his services were terminated.

Employee's services not to be unfairly terminated.

5. (1) This section shall not apply to -

- (a) an employee who has not completed the period of probationary employment provided for in section 32 of the Employment Act, 1980;
- (b) an employee whose contract of employment requires him to work less than twenty-one hours each week;
- (c) an employee who is a member of the immediate family of the employer;
- (d) an employee engaged for a fixed term and whose term of engagement has expired

(2) No employer shall terminate the services of an employee unfairly,

(3) The termination of an employee's services shall be deemed to be unfair if it takes place for anyone or more of the following reasons -

- (a) the employee's membership of an organisation or participation in an organisation's activities outside working hours or with the consent of the employer, within hours ;

- (b) because the employee is seeking office as, or is acting or has acted in the capacity of an employee's representative ;
- (c) the filling in good faith of a complaint or the participation in a proceeding against an employer involving alleged violation of any law or the breach of the terms and conditions of employment under which the employee is employed ;
- (d) the race, colour, religious, marital status, sex, national origin, tribal, or clan extraction, political affiliation or social status of the employee ;
- (e) where the employee is certified by a medical practitioner as being incapable of carrying out normal duties because of medical condition brought about by work carried out by the employee for his present employer except where the employer proves that he has no suitable alternative employment to offer that employee ;
- (f) because of the employee's absence from duty due to sickness certified by a medical practitioner for a period not exceeding six months, or to accident or injury arising out of his employment, except where the employer proves that, in all the circumstances of the case, it was necessary for the employer permanently to replace the employee at the time his service is terminated.

Fair reasons for the termination of an employee's service.

6. It shall be fair for an employer to terminate the services of an employee for any of the following reasons -

- (a) because the conduct or work performance of the employee has, after written, been such that the employer cannot reasonably be expected to continue to employ the employee ;
- (b) because the employee is guilty of a dishonest act, violence, threats or ill treatment towards his employer, or towards any member of the employer's family or any other employee of the undertaking in which the employee is employed ;
- (c) because the employee willfully causes damage to the buildings, machinery, tools, raw materials or other objects connected with the undertaking in which the employee is employed ;
- (d) because of the employee, either by imprudence or carelessness, endangers the safety of the undertaking or any person employed or resident therein ;
- (e) because of the employee has willfully revealed manufacturing secrets or matters of a confidential nature to another person which is, or is likely to be detrimental to the employer ;
- (f) because the employee has absented himself from work for more than a total of three working days in any period of thirty days without either the permission of the employer or a certificate signed by a medical practitioner certifying that the employee was unfit for work on those occasions ;
- (g) because the employee refuses either to adopt safety measures or follow instructions of his employer in regard to the prevention of accidents or disease ;
- (h) because the employer has been committed to prison and thus prevented fulfilling his obligations under his contract of employment ;
- (i) because the employee is unable to continue in employment without contravening this regulation or any other law ;

Certificate of employment.

7. Any employee whose services are terminated shall be entitled to receive on request, at the time of such termination, a certificate from his employer specifying the dates of his engagement and termination and the nature of the work on which he has been employed.

Suspension from employment.

8. (1) An employer may suspend an employee from employment without pay where the employee is remanded in custody.

(2) Where an employee is subsequently acquitted of the charge for which he was placed in custody, the suspension shall be lifted, and sub regulation 3 the employer shall not be obliged to pay any wages to the employee for the period spent in custody.

(3) Where the employee is remanded in custody as a result of a charge laid by employer and is subsequently acquitted of that charge, the employer shall pay to the employee an amount equal to the remuneration he would have been paid for the period spent in custody had he not been in custody.

Employee to give notice of redundancies.

9. (1) For the purpose of this regulation the term "employee" shall be not to include any employee -

(a) engaged on a seasonal contract;

(b) who is a casual employee

(2) Where an employer contemplates terminating the contracts of employment of five or more employees for reason of redundancy, he shall give not less than one month's notice thereof in writing to the will which is a party to a collective agreement and information -

(a) the number of employee likely to become redundant ;

(b) the occupations and remuneration of the employees affected ;

(c) the reasons for the redundancies ; and

(d) the date when the redundancies are likely to take effect.

Remedies against unfair termination of services.

11. (1) Where an employee alleges that his services have been unfairly terminated, or that the conduct of the employer towards him has been such that the employee can no longer be expected to continue in his employment, the employee may file a complaint with the Labour Commissioner, whereupon the Labour Commissioner, using the powers accorded to him Part II of the Employment Act, 1980 shall seek to settle the complaint by such means as may appear to be suitable to the circumstances of the case.

(2) Where the Commissioner of Labour succeeds in achieving a settlement of the complaint, the terms of the settlement shall be recorded in writing, signed by the employer and by employee and witnessed by the Commissioner of Labour one copy of the settlement shall be given to the employer, one copy shall be given to the employee and the original shall be retained by the Commissioner of Labour.

(3) If the Commissioner of Labour is unable to achieve a settlement of the complaint within twenty-one days of it being filed with him, the complaint shall be treated as an unresolved dispute and the Commissioner of Labour shall forthwith submit a full report thereon to the Industrial Court which will then proceed to deal with the matter in accordance with the Industrial Relations Act.

Burden of proof.

12. (1) In the presentation of any complaint under Part V of the Employment Act, 1980 the employee shall be required to prove that at the time services were terminated that the employee was an employee to whom section 12 applied.

(2) The services of an employee shall not be considered as having been fairly terminated unless the employer proved -

- (a) that the reason for the termination was one permitted by section 13 and
- (b) that, taking into account all the circumstances of the case, it was reasonable to terminate the services of the employee.

Repatriation of employees.

13. (1) Where an employee has been brought to the place of the employment by the employer, or by a person acting on his behalf, and the employee's contract of employment is terminated by the employer for any cause, the employer shall be liable for the expenses of repatriating the employee by reasonable means to the place from which the employee was brought.

(2) The expenses of repatriation shall include -

- (a) the cost of travelling and subsistence expenses for the journey
- (b) subsistence expenses during the period, if any, between the date of the termination of the contract and date of repatriation.

Offences under this Part.

14. Any employee who -

- (a) except where section 33 (8) of the Employment Act, 1980 (section 3 of this Schedule) applies, fails or refuses to give an employee whose services are being terminated the minimum period of notices required by that section ;
- (b) fails or refuses to an employee whose services are being terminated to be absent from work for the purposes of seeking other employment as required by section 34 (6) section 4 of this Schedule ;
- (c) terminates the contracts of employment of five or more of his employees for reasons of redundancy without giving prior notice thereof as required by section 40 (section 10 of this Schedule); or
- (d) fails to pay the expenses of repatriating an employee as required by section 43 (section 12 of this Schedule);
- (e) fails to pay severance allowance as required by regulation 11 shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction therefore to a fine of two hundred and fifty Emalangeni or imprisonment for three months.
